

I am writing urge a delay in the vote regarding consolidation of media outlets, to open the topic for further for public discussion and a release of the actual language of the rule change before the vote is taken. This is too important an issue for the country for it to be handled in the proverbial "smoke-filled room". We need more time, more discussion, and more consideration before letting a few big companies control all the information the public gets.